

Mrs. Latham Dies On Way To Hospital

Mrs. Lila Winchester Latham, wife of W. T. Latham, died last Saturday morning while en route from Buck Creek Ranch, which she and Mr. Latham had operated for many years, to a hospital in Franklin.

Mrs. Latham, who was 76 years of age, had appeared as well as usual the preceding evening, but Saturday morning was unwell, and Mr. Latham decided to bring her to Franklin to a hospital for medical attention. She died shortly after leaving the Buck Creek Ranch, in the Rainbow Springs section.

The body was taken Saturday to Buchanan, W. Va., for funeral services and burial there Tuesday.

Mrs. Latham, a native of Canada, is survived by her husband, three sons, two daughters, two sisters, and 10 grandchildren.
