

FUNERAL HELD FOR L. M. LEASE

Burial Held at Highlands
After Services at Cullasaja Church

Funeral services for L. M. Lease, 84, who died at his home on Cullasaja last Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, was held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Pentecostal church on Cullasaja by the Rev. I. V. Ramey, and the body was taken to Highlands for burial at 11 o'clock.

The deceased was widely known and a highly respected citizen of Macon county. He moved here from Canton, Ohio, about 20 years ago, and operated a meat market here for several years, later moving to Cullasaja, where he farmed. He had been in ill health for several months and his death was caused by brights disease and a heart attack.

He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Laura Wright, of Highlands, and two children in Ohio, who were by a former marriage, and a host of friends.

The Franklin Press, 25 June 1931