

Betty Chloe Ledford

Betty Chloe (Weems) Ledford, 70, a resident of Prineville, Ore., died Monday, Jan. 17, 2005, in Prineville.

A graveside service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 21, at Juniper Haven Cemetery in Prineville, with Pastor Joe Meade officiating.

Mrs. Ledford was born in High Plains, N.M., to Albert and Lucille (Corrigan) Weems on June 25, 1934.

She married William Sheirdan Ledford in Goldendale, Wash., on Sept. 29, 1950. She and her husband lived in several Oregon towns until they settled in Prineville.

Mrs. Ledford's family said she is remembered "for her love of watching her kids and grandkids play sports, especially baseball and for the quilts and afghans she made."

Survivors include her husband, Sheirdan Ledford; three sons, Tom Ledford, James Ledford; and Ronald Ledford; a daughter, Judy O'Daniel; grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 21 January 2005