

Henriette Ledford Passes In Durham

Henrietta Love Ledford, 45, well known colored citizen of Franklin, died in Lincoln hospital in Durham on December 6, following an operation for acute appendicitis. Interment was in Franklin on December 9. She is survived by her husband, Cline Ledford, whom she married on December 24, 1919, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Love, two sisters, five brothers and a large number of relatives and friends who mourn her untimely death.

She had been a loyal member of the Bethlehem Baptist church from an early age.

The Franklin Press, 16 December 1943