

Last Rites Conducted For James A. Ledford

Last rites for James A. Ledford, 65, were held at the Burningtown Baptist church last Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Robert Williams, pastor of the Oak Grove Baptist church, officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Ledford died at his home in the Oak Dale community early Monday morning, following an illness of two months.

A life-long resident of Macon county, he was born on November 22, 1875, the son of the late Thomas and Jennie Baldwin Ledford. He was married to Miss Ada Raby, also of this county, who survives him.

Also surviving the deceased are six children, Lethia, Arnold, Frank, Sheridan, Iva Jane and Elizabeth, all of Route 3; and two brothers, Fred and D. A., also of Route 3.

The pallbearers were Morris Ledford, Bester Ledford, Herschel Ledford, Edgar Reeves, Carroll Rowland, and Lloyd Mason.

The Franklin Press, 19 December 1940