

Robert G. "Bob" Liniger, 75, of Aquone, passed away Monday, July 2, 2007, in an Andrews care facility.

He was a native of Hartford City, Ind., but had lived in Tampa, Fla., most of his life before moving to Macon County in 1994.

He was the son of the late Charles and Letha Elizabeth Love Liniger. He was the husband of the late Evelyn Locklear Liniger, who died Feb. 15, 2007.

He retired from the Hillsborough Clerk of Circuit Court. He was of the Methodist faith.

Surviving are a daughter, Mary Beth Liniger of Bethesda, Md.; a son, David Scott Liniger and wife Marieelana of Tampa; a stepdaughter, Laura Sue Clement of Tampa; a brother, Charles Liniger; and two grandchildren.

No services are planned.

Ivie Funeral Home in Andrews is in charge of the arrangements.

An online guest register is available by visiting www.iviefuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 6 July 2007