

Rev. Loiry

Rev. Alvin A. Loiry Jr., 76, of Cedar Park, Tex., died Thursday, April 23. Born in Bourneville, Ohio, he was a China Hump pilot during World War II. He was a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

During his 34 years in the ministry, he served as pastor and director of missions for the Southern Baptist Convention and churches in Texas, North Carolina, New Mexico, and many Hispanic churches. He was Director of Missions of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association in 1977-1981.

Survivors include his wife, Christine Browning Loiry of Cedar Park; daughter, Margaret Lazaretti of Cedar Park; daughter Jane Wible of Sacramento, Calif.; grandsons and granddaughters.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 27, at New Hope Baptist Church of Cedar Park, with Dr. A. Duane Brooks officiating. Interment was in Cook Walden/Capital Parks cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the New Hope Baptist Church Building Fund, 200 New Hope Dr., Cedar Park, Tex. 78613. Cook-Walden Chapel of the Hills Funeral Home of Austin, Tex., was in charge of arrangements.