

Mrs. Leona W. Long

Mrs. Leona Weaver Long, 86, of Waynesville, died Saturday, April 17, in a Haywood County hospital after a brief illness.

Though a native of Buncombe County, daughter of the late James C. and Timoxena Wells Weaver, she spent most of her youth in the Cartoogechaye Community where her father owned the farm that is now owned by Dr. Frank Killian.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Mary Allison, of Greensboro; and three brothers, Charles W. and Ernest G., both of Detroit, Mich., and Lowry Weaver, of Waynesville.

Funeral service were held Sunday in Waynesville First United Methodist Church and burial was in Green Hills Cemetery.

Those from Franklin who attended the services were Mrs. Joe Setser, Dr. A. Rufus Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Slagle.

The Franklin Press, 22 April 1971