

Rev. M. A. Love,
Former Macon Man,
Dies In Georgia

Word has been received here of the death last Friday at his home in Demorest, Ga., of the Rev. Marlon A. Love, formerly of Macon County.

Mr. Love, who was 76, was a native of this county, and had served various Baptist churches here before moving to Georgia. He was twice married, first to Miss Laura Tillery, of Madison county, and second, to Miss Lethia Deweese, who survives him.

Survivors, in addition to his widow, include four children, Mrs. Stokes Gillis and Mrs. Hubert Burrell, of Demorest, Tillery T. Love, of Nantahala, and Carroll T. Love, of Marietta, Ga.; and two brothers, George Love, of Morganton, Va., and Arthur Love, of Mountain City, Ga.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Mount Carmel Baptist church, near Demorest, and burial was in the Clarkesville cemetery.
