

Virginia Louise Lytle

Virginia Louise Lytle, 77, of Asheville, passed away on Thursday, Sept. 8, 2005, at an Asheville hospital.

Born in Macon County, she was the daughter of the late James Clyde and Esta Deweese Hughes. She was preceded in death by a son, Donald Lytle; a sister, Mary Marcelline McConnell; and three brothers, Arvin, Gareth and J.C. Hughes.

She was a homemaker and a talented artist. She was a member of Malvern Hills Presbyterian Church. She spent years teaching children about the Lord, the family said.

Surviving are her husband of 60 years, Roy Lytle; a daughter, Teresa Wyatt and husband Dan of Atlanta; a sister, Sue Sandlin and husband Bill of Asheville; a brother, Mackenzie "Toby" Hughes of Lexington; a granddaughter, Kristen Scarborough and husband Chris; a grandson, Charles "Chuck" Lytle; two great-grandsons, C.J. and Mathew Scarborough, all of Maryville, Tenn.; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Monday, Sept. 12, at 2 p.m., at Malvern Hills Presbyterian Church. Rev. Douglas B. Tilley officiated.

Burial was at Pisgah View Memorial Park.

The family received friends Sunday, Sept. 11, from 7 to 9 p.m., at Groce Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Malvern Hills Presbyterian Church Missionary Fund, Two Bear Creek Rd., Asheville, NC 28806.

Groce Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Online condolences may be made by visiting www.grocefuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 13 September 2005