

Mr. MacDougall

Harry K. MacDougall Sr., a Highlands summer resident for more than 30 years, died April 2, at his home in Miami Springs, Fla., after a short illness. He was 75.

Memorial services were held in Highlands on April 7 at Bryant Funeral Chapel with interment following at Highlands cemetery.

A resident of Miami, Fla., since the early 1920s, he had been an accountant with that city for many years and was retired from the circuit court. After retirement he entered the real estate business.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy; two sons, Harry Jr. of Miramar, Fla., and Malcolm of Baltimore, Md.; two daughters, Shirley (Mrs. Ken) Landgren of Smithfield, N.C., and Pamela (Mrs. Richard) Kuykendall of Miami; and eight grandchildren.