

Mrs. Markham

Emma Louise (El) Elstad Markham, of Holt Circle, Highlands, died Saturday at Highlands-Cashiers Hospital after an extended illness. She was the daughter of the late John and Sina Christiansen Elstad. She was a registered surgical nurse and a member of the Highlands Baptist Church and past president of many church organizations during her years in Hollywood, Fla.

Services were held Tuesday at the First Baptist Church, and burial in Highlands Memorial Park. The Revs. Lewis Gibson and Ronnie Branson officiated.

Surviving are her husband, Wilber L. Markham; one daughter, Mary Ann Travis of Springfield, Ill.; three brothers, Joseph Elstad of Bemidji, Minn., Clayton Elstad of Minneapolis, Minn.; and Milton Elstad of Minneapolis, Minn.; and two granddaughters.

Memorials may be made to Highlands First Baptist Church Building Fund.

Bryant Funeral Home of Highlands was in charge of arrangements.