

Mrs. Marsh

Marilyn E. Marsh, of Trapper Creek, Alaska, died Friday, Nov. 27, in a Talkeetna, Alaska nursing home.

She was a native of Franklin, the daughter of Frank and Maude Williams. She received a masters degree from Western Carolina University, and was a school teacher for many years. She lived and taught in Anchorage, Alaska from 1963 to 1983. After retiring, she resided in Trapper Creek, Alaska.

She bred and trained many breeds of dogs, including the first Chocolate Cockers in Alaska. She loved hiking and exploring historic sites in Alaska and the Yukon.

She is survived by her husband, Kenneth; two daughters, Sabrita Holland of Anchorage,

Alaska, and Laura Marsh of Trapper Creek, Alaska; a stepson, Ken Marsh of Wasilla; a step-daughter, Tannic Marsh of Somerset, Wis.; three brothers, James Edward Williams of Franklin, Ray A. Williams and Earl J. Williams, both of Anchorage, Alaska; four nieces and one nephew.

Valley Funeral Home in Talkeetna, Alaska was in charge of arrangements.