

Willerson H. Martin, 86, of Clayton, died Tuesday, May 3, 2005, at Mountain View Community Living Center.

He was born Feb. 19, 1919, in Lake Wales, Fla. He lived the greater part of his life in Lake Wales. He was employed in the citrus harvesting and packing industry for many years. He was a member of Church of God in Lake Wales, Fla.

Survivors include: a brother-in-law, Paul F. Lequire Sr., of Anderson, S.C.; and six nephews and nieces, Paul F. Lequire Jr., of Johnson City, Tenn., Karl A. Lequire and Karen P. Lequire, both of Snellville, Arthur M. Shields and Paula Lequire Shields, both of Jefferson, and Wilhemina Duschurer of Hartwell.

Graveside services were held at Lavonia City Cemetery with the Rev. John Cassora officiating.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, May 12, 2005