

ONE OF OLDEST RESIDENTS —

Mrs. Mashburn Dies At 99; Leaves 122 Descendants

One of the oldest living residents of the county, Mrs. Lassic Eugene Guffey Mashburn, died February 18 at 5 p.m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julia Shope in the Longview Community, leaving 122 descendants.

She would have been 100 years old June 6. A native of Cherokee County, she was the widow of Jesse Mashburn, of this county. They were married in 1879.

Mrs. Mashburn is survived by three sons, two daughters, 31 grandchildren, and 85 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted the 20th at the Sugarfork Baptist Church, of which she was a member. Officiating were the Rev. Andrew Cloer and the Rev. Fred Sorrells. Burial was in the Sugarfork cemetery.

In addition to Mrs. Shope, surviving are another daughter, Mrs. Fannie Angel, of Franklin, Route 4, and three sons, Bert and Charlie Mashburn, both of Route 5, and George Mashburn, of Sylva.

Serving as pallbearers were Wymer Gibson, Homer Mashburn, Clint Elnore, Ira Ledford, Sanford Mann, and Horace Mand.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
