

Last Rites For Mrs. Roxie Angel Mashburn

Funeral services for Mrs. Roxie Angel Mashburn, 72, were held at the Bethel Methodist church on the Highlands highway Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Carl W. Judy, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. F. Marchman, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Mashburn died at her home in the Patton community Tuesday, following a brief illness.

Born in the Cullasaja section of Macon county, she was married to W. W. Mashburn, also of Macon county. She was a member of the Bethel Methodist church.

Active pallbearers were Henry, Roy, Homer and Arthur Mashburn, sons, and David and Charley Angel, brothers.

Surviving are the husband and seven children, four sons, Henry J. and Roy Mashburn of Franklin, R.F.D. No. 1, Homer Mashburn of Franklin and Detroit, Mich., and Arthur Mashburn of Madison; three daughters, Mrs. J. S. Waldroop of Knoxville, Tenn., Mrs. Oscar Dobson and Miss Ella Mashburn of Franklin, R-1; four brothers, David, Charlie and Frank Angel, all of Cullasaja, Rob-Angel of Cuthfort, Ga.; and four sisters, Mrs. Frank Wooten of Cullasaja, Mrs. Luke Howell, Mrs. Frank Daves and Mrs. John Jennings, all of Franklin, R-2. There are 23 grandchildren.