

Death Calls Sam Mason

On Wednesday, January 30th we had to give up our beloved brother, Sam Mason, whom the Lord saw fit to call away. He was laid to rest in the Tellico cemetery on January 31, 1929. He was taken away at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning. He took sick about four days before he was called to meet his God. It was very sad to hear of his death and he is greatly missed by all who knew him. He leaves behind a loving wife and five children and a mother and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his loss.

He joined the Tellico church when he was quite young and has been a faithful member ever since.

It was sad to give him up. He always tried to lead the young people the way they should go. I always realized that God's crown is full of stars and let's all strive to meet him some day. We hope that their loss will be their eternal gain. We hope there in the midst of our sorrows a great hope to look forward to that we'll see him again with the rest of our loved ones in heaven if we live a life for the Lord.

Sam always had a smile on his face and words of cheer on his lips.

Rev. Moses Woodard attended the funeral services. The bereaved family have our sympathy.

He has gone to meet his two loving children who have gone on before.

EMMA DEHART.
