

Born in Scaly Mountain, N.C., he was the son of the late Stover Thurman and Ruby Jeanette Miller Mason. He was retired from Goodman Conveyor and was a member of Hillcrest Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Kenneth Mason and Carlton Mason.

Survivors include his wife, Jessie Evelyn Wilson Mason of the home; daughter, Beverly Clardy of Williamston, S.C.; son, Charles T. Mason of Piedmont, S.C.; four sisters, Janice Matheson and Linda Barwick, both of Piedmont, S.C., Darlene Robinson of Rabun Gap, Jewel Holt of Mountain City; two brothers, Larry Mason and Lewis Mason, both of Clayton; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held June 5, 2002 at Hillcrest Baptist Church with Rev. David Cox, Rev. James Kelly, and Rev. Clarence Howard officiating. Committal services followed in Clear Creek Baptist Church cemetery in highlands, N.C. with Rev. Everett Wilson officiating.

Memorials may be made to Hillcrest Baptist Church Building Fund, 1400 Anderson Dr., Williamston, SC 29697.

Announcement courtesy of Hunter Funeral Home.

The Clayton Tribune, June 6, 2002

Thurman Mason

Thurman Chester Mason, 68, of Williamston, S.C., died June 2, 2002 at Anderson Area Medical Center.