

Wm. C. Mason

William Crawford Mason, 79, of Franklin, died Saturday, July 26, in a Sylva hospital after a number of years of declining health. A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late Andrew and Elizabeth Stiles Mason and was married to the late Perry Pannell.

He was a member of the Franklin First Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 28, at Iotla Baptist Church and burial was in the church cemetery. The Rev. M. I. Brock was the officiating minister. Pallbearers were Furman Mason, Lamar Mason, Kenneth Mason, Julian Zimmerman, Bill Stevens, and Willie Wykle.

Surviving are four sons, Robert S. and Carl David Mason, both of Franklin, W. J. (Dubb) Mason, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Lt. William C. Mason, Jr., stationed with the U.S. Navy in Albany, Ga.; one brother, Paul C. Mason, of Franklin; one sister, Mrs. Reid Elliott, of Franklin; 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Arrangements were under the direction of Neal-Potts Funeral Home.

The Franklin Press, 3 August 1972