

Funeral Services For J. B. Matlock Held Monday

Funeral services for J. Dowman Matlock, 73, were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Snow Hill Methodist church with the Rev. W. Jackson Huneveutt, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church, officiating in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. D. P. Grant. He was assisted by the Rev. J. F. Marchman, the Rev. Norman E. Holden and the Rev. H. L. Phillips. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dr. Edgar Angel, T. W. Angel, Jr., W. C. Burrell, J. H. Brookshire, Ras Penland and Ralph Pendland.

Mr. Matlock died at his home at West's Mill Sunday morning following an illness of several months. He was a farmer and a member of the Snow Hill Methodist church.

He was married to Miss Lillie I. Matlock, of the Leatherman community, and to this union were born 13 children, 10 of whom still survive. They had lived in the Cowee community all their lives. He was a son of the late John and Jane West Matlock, and had been a member of the Snow Hill Methodist church for more than 30 years.

Surviving are the widow, and the following children, Ora and John Matlock, of Marietta, Ga., Charles Matlock, of Winston-Salem, Cpl. Jay B. Matlock and Pvt. W. Perry Matlock, both in the armed forces in Italy, and Sgt. Dorsey, Camp Wheeler, Ga., and four daughters, Mrs. J. Fred McGaha, and Mrs. Roy Cantrell, of West's Mill, Mrs. H. L. Phillips, of Connelly Springs, and Mrs. Fred Moore, of Franklin, route 1; five sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Potts, Bryson City, Mrs. Kansas Bryson, Saginaw, Mich., Mrs. C. A. Bryson, and Mrs. Cora Potts, West's Mill and Mrs. Jennie Jenkins, Boise, Idaho; and two brothers, Frank and Ben Matlock, of Boise, Idaho; 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Bryant Funeral Directors were in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 24 May 1945