Rites Held At Rabun Gap For Mrs. McCall

Funeral services for Mrs. Burnetta McCall, 52, wife of Thomas McCall, were held at the Macedonia cemetery at Rabun Gap, Ga., on Sunday.

Mrs. McCall died at her home in the Highlands community Saturday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock, following a four months illness.

Born in Rabun county, Georgia, October 15, 1893, she was a daughter of the late Aaron Owens and Mrs. Esther Galloway Owens. She had lived in Macon county most all her life, and was a member of the Church of God at Walhalla, S. C.

Surviving are the husband and two children, Mrs. Elsie Mize, of Highlands, and Christopher McCall, serving with the Navy in the Pacific. Also three sisters, Mrs. Sarah McCall, of Macon county, Mrs. Lella McCall, Rabun Gap, and Mrs. Elsie Waters, and one brother, Virgil Owens, of Clayton, Ga., and two grandchildren.

The arrangements were under the direction of the Bryant funeral home.
