

Miss McDowell.

Funeral services for Miss May McDowell, 81, were held Monday afternoon of this week in the chapel of the Cannon Funeral Home in Clayton, Ga.

Miss McDowell, a native of Macon County and the daughter of the late William and Ellen McDowell, died at her home in Tiger, Ga., Sunday morning, after an illness of four months. She was a member of the Tiger Presbyterian Church. She was a graduate of Woman's College, Greensboro, and taught in the Macon County public schools for a number of years.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Leonard Gibbs, pastor of the Tiger Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Rev. Marlon Anderson. Burial was in the Roane family plot, near Clayton.

Surviving are her brother-in-law, Thomas E. Roane, of Tiger; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Among those from Franklin who attended the funeral services for Miss McDowell were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sloan, Miss Irene Sloan, Mrs. Reby S. Tessler, Miss Harriet Kinnebrew, Mrs. R. G. Desbears, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kingsbery.

The Franklin Press, 30 April 1959