

Freddy McElroy

Active community worker and salon owner

Freddy McElroy, 80, died Thursday, July 24, 2003, in a hospital in Granite City, Ill. A native of Franklin, she was the daughter of the late William and Pauline Penland Hall. She was married to the late Marshall Byron McElroy. She was a hair salon owner and also a 4-H and Girl Scout leader. Through the Madison County Home-maker Extension service she taught sewing to the blind.

She is survived by a daughter, Marcie and husband, Richard Johnson of Troy, Ill, a granddaughter, Julie and husband Bill French, of Troy, two great-granddaughters.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Wilma Crisp and Helen Kimsey and two brothers, Bert and Bill Hall.

Funeral services were held Monday, July 28, at Thomas Saksa Funeral Home in Granite City. The Rev. Elmer McElroy officiated. Burial was at Sunset Hill Cemetery in Glen Carbon, Ill.

Memorial contributions may be made to Animal Protective Association of Granite City.

The Franklin Press, 1 August 2003