

Funeral Held For Mrs. Jane Ann D. McHan

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Jane Ann Dean McHan at Saw Mill Hill in Swain county on August 30. Burial was in the church cemetery.

She died on August 21 as a result of a stroke.

Mrs. McHan was born in Macon county in 1859, the daughter of the late George and Altha Dean, who owned a large farm near the Swain line.

In 1874, she married William McHan, and later moved to Bryson City.

Mrs. McHan had been a member of the Baptist church for seventy-two years and regularly attended services until her death.

She is survived by six daughters, Aftle Byrd, Eva Davis, Carle Camby, Beulah Hembree, Rosetta Seay, and Geneva Freeman; five sons, George, Ennis, and Ellis of Swain county, Burch of Murphy, and Dalis of Gastonia; two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Morgan of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Laura Wild of Moran, Tex., and three brothers, John Dean of Macon county, Charles and William Dean of Texarkana, Texas and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
