
Mr. McKay

Charles William McKay, 50, of Franklin, died Sunday at his home after a brief illness. He was the son of the John L. and Elizabeth Shirley McKay. He was a heavy equipment operator, a veteran of the Korean Conflict.

Services were held Tuesday at Franklin First Assembly of God Church, of which he was a member. Burial was in Woodlawn Memorial Park. Revs. Tom Grubb, Andy Cloer, and Ernie Sanders officiated. Pallbearers were Nelson Bates, Thomas Spradling, Gilmer Gregory, Charles Reed, Bryant Ledford, and Hubert Reneau. Honorary pallbearers were employees of Harrison Construction Co.

Members of Franklin VFW Post served as colorguards at the graveside.

Surviving, along with his parents, are his wife, Linda C. McKay; one son, Jeffrey, of the home; one daughter, Robin, of the home; one brother, Tom McKay of Franklin; one sister, Mrs. Jack Mashburn of Franklin; and a number of nieces and nephews.

The family has requested that memorials be made to cancer research.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.