

Inez McKinney

Inez Blair McKinney, 78, of Clayton, died Friday, April 6, 2001 in Northside Hospital in Atlanta.

Born in Rabun County, she was the daughter of the late William W. and Myrtle Chapman Blair. She was a sales clerk in the department store industry and was a member of the Clayton Baptist Church.

Surviving are children, David H. and Debbie McKinney of Gainesville, Frankie M. and Donald J. DeHaye of Atlanta, Christi and Donnie Hunter of Cleveland; one brother and sister-in-law, Thomas J. and Dot Blair of Mt. Airy; one sister, Mary B. Dockins of Marietta, S.C.; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; several nephews, nieces and cousins.

Funeral services were Sunday, April 8, 2001, at the chapel of Hunter Funeral Home by Rev. James E. Turpen and laymen Lloyd Hunter. Burial was in Wesley Memorial Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge.

The Clayton Tribune, 21 April 2001