

John Allyn Miller, 60, of Franklin, passed away Tuesday, December 18, 2007.

Born in Rochester, N.Y., he was the son of Dr. Charles V. Miller and the late Ann Amelia Clark Miller.

He was a self-employed professional photographer based in Asheville for 15 years.

He was a retired Vietnam-era U.S. Army veteran; member of the Mill Creek Men's Golf Association; and a former member of the Manhattan Sailing Club in New York. Prior to relocating to Franklin, John was an active member of Grace Episcopal Church in Asheville.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his wife, The Rev. Dorrie Pratt; two children, Charles Jason Miller and wife Sarah of Gaston, and Elisabeth Miller of Wilmington; and five grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 22, at St. Cyprians Episcopal Church. The Rt. Rev. Porter Taylor, Bishop of the Diocese of Western North Carolina will officiate.

Memorials may be made to Care Net, 130 Bidwell St., Franklin, NC 28734; St. Agnes Episcopal Church or St. Cyprians Episcopal Church. Mailing address for both churches is 84 Church Street, Franklin, NC 28734.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
