

Mary Margaret Millican, 87, died Monday, March 14, 2005.

A native of Whiteville, N.C., she was a daughter of Mattie Hill and Walter Patrick Lynch and was the widow of W.T. (Bill) Millican, to whom she was married for 68 years. She was also preceded in death by a son, W.T. (Tom) Millican III.

Mrs. Millican lived in Athens since 1954 and was a homemaker. She was an active member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, where she served on the board and was director of the Thrift House. She was a member of the Athens Garden Club, Road Runners of Athens and numerous civic organizations, including past board member of Athens YMCA.

Survivors include: her daughter, Pat Millican Jarrett and husband, Larry, of Clayton; a sister-in-law, Ann Millican Helms of St. Simons Island; grandchildren, Phil Millican of Sylvania, Katie VanBrackle of Alpharetta, Jenny Rutledge of Carlton, Johnny Jarrett of Athens; great-grandchildren, Bobby and Davey VanBrackle, Ashlyn Millican, Millican and Seele Jarrett and Jarrett Rudledge.

Memorial services were held Wednesday, March 16, 2005, at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Athens.

Memorials may be made to Emmanuel Episcopal Church of Athens, Clayton First United Methodist Church or a charity of choice.

Lord and Stephens West of Bogart was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, March 17, 2005