

John M. Moffitt

John M. Moffitt, 86, of 109 Morgan Place, Toccoa, Ga., died Monday, December 29, in a Hiwassee, Ga. hospital following a heart attack. Mr. Morgan was born July 28, 1883, in Franklin, son of the late Lawson Kelt and Arizona McGhee Moffitt. He had lived in Charlotte for a number of years before moving to Toccoa two years ago. He was a retired cabinet maker and was a member of Etowah Methodist Church, Etowah.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Bertha Blaine Moffitt, of the home; three daughters, Mrs. Dan Hitt and Mrs. Sara Ruth Stikeleather, both of Toccoa, and Mrs. Dewey Dickerson, of Hayesville; three sons, Donald L. Moffitt, of Jacksonville, Fla., Floyd G. Moffitt, of Mableton, Ga., and Max J. Moffitt, of Arlington, Va.; one half-brother, Earl Moffitt, of Detroit, Mich.; two half-sisters, Mrs. John Wallace, of Franklin, and Mrs. John McConnell, of Hendersonville; and seventeen grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 31, at the Acree-David Funeral Home in Toccoa with the Rev. Jack Lamb officiating. Grandsons served as pallbearers and interment was in Stephens Memorial Gardens.
