

John R. Moffitt

John Robert Moffitt, 43, of Toccoa, Ga., formerly of Macon County, died in the Veteran's Hospital in Augusta, Ga., Thursday, January 23, following an extended illness.

Son of John M. and Bertha Blaine Moffitt, of Toccoa, he was born in Franklin and received his early education in the Macon County public schools. He was a veteran of World War II, was wounded in Germany, and has been disabled since that time.

He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Surviving in addition to his parents are three sisters, Mrs. Dan Hitt and Mrs. Sara Ruth Stikeleather, of Toccoa, Ga., and Mrs. Dewey Dickerson, of Hayesville; three brothers, Donald L. Moffitt, of Jacksonville, Fla., Floyd G. Moffitt, of Mableton, Ga., and Max J. Moffitt, of Arlington, Va.

Funeral services were held in the chapel of Acree-Davis Funeral Home with the Rev. Jack Lamb officiating. Burial was in Stephens Memorial Gardens with full military honors accorded by the Toccoa Unit of the National Guard.

The Franklin Press, 30 January 1969