

Edward M. Moore, 68, of North Carolina and formerly of Roswell, died Saturday, June 2, 2007.

He graduated from high school in Shreveport, La., and later from the American Institute of Baking. He began working in the baking industry at age 17 and was a 48-year member of the American Institute of Baking. He owned and operated his business for 32 years. He served in the U.S. Army. He was a member of Lebanon Baptist Church for 30 years and upon moving to North Carolina was a member of Highlands First Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by a son, Freddie James Morris; and his parents, Charles and Lena Moore.

Survivors include: his wife of 37 years, Opal Morris Moore of North Carolina; two daughters and sons-in-law, Crystal and Chuck Dempsey of Highlands, N.C., and Monique and John Webb of Roswell; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Paul and LuAnn Moore of Mount Airy, N.C., and Leslie and Billy Stinnett of Arkansas; a sister, Martha Walette of Shreveport, La.; 14 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Lebanon Baptist Church in Roswell with the Revs. Richard Hester and Dan Robinson officiating. Burial followed at Green Lawn Cemetery.

The Clayton Tribune, June 14, 2007