

Mary Margaret Moore

Mary Margaret Moore, 76, of West Coventry Drive, Franklin, passed away Thursday, Nov. 24, 2005, at Harris Regional Hospital in Sylva.

A native of Wakefield, Mass., she was the daughter of the late Roy and Lucy Skillings Luken. She was married to the late Rufus B. Moore.

She was a homemaker, a real estate agent in Florida and a sales clerk. She was a member of the Friendship Club in Franklin, the Franklin Community Center bridge group, and the Melbourne Shiloh Temple and No. 151 Daughters of the Nile.

She is survived by a daughter, Sharon Van Horn and husband Bill of Franklin; a son, Scott Moore and wife Melanie of Chattanooga, Tenn.; and a granddaughter, Sandy Van Horn.

No services are planned.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 2 December 2005