

LAST RITES HELD FOR A. R. MORELAND

Final rites for A. R. Moreland, who was killed instantly Wednesday, October 2, through contact with a high voltage wire while working on the Glenville dam project, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church here. The services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Higgins, pastor, assisted by Rev. J. G. Benfield, pastor of the Baptist church, and Rev. R. B. DuPree, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Burial was in the Zachary family cemetery at Norton, where the Masons took charge of the services.

Pallbearers were Tudor N. Hall, Jack M. Hall, Thomas C. Harbison, Sidney McCarty, E. A. Burt, Jr., and Elwood Doudna. Flower bearers were Mrs. Thomas C. Harbison, Mrs. Tudor N. Hall, Mrs. E. A. Burt, Jr., Mrs. C. C. Potts and Mrs. Wilton H. Cobb. The music was in charge of Mrs. Jack M. Hall and Mrs. R. B. DuPree and the ten-member choir, selected from the four churches here, sang "Crossing the Bar," "Peace, Perfect Peace," and "Abide With Me", accompanied at the organ by Mrs. A. C. Holt.

Friends and relatives of the family from Jackson county and this community overflowed the small church. The many beautiful floral offerings were banked along the chancel, and the choir stall, and as a fitting tribute to Mr. Moreland's overseas service during the World War, the casket was draped with a United States flag.

Mr. Moreland was born November 18, 1893, at Harrisonville, Mo., the son of Alban W. Moreland and Mary Alice Moreland. He attended the University of Nebraska, later graduating from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. He was a Mason and a member of the Baptist church. He served with the expeditionary forces overseas for a year during the World War.

On May 6, 1933, he was married to Dr. Jessie Zachary, who survives him. Surviving also are two sisters, Mrs. Lee Daugherty, Webb City, Mo., and Mrs. Edwin Sawyer of Hutchinson, Kansas.

The Morelands came to Highlands from Raleigh early in 1936, and made many friends here who were shocked and deeply grieved at Mr. Moreland's untimely passing.
