

Mrs. Bradley's Mother Succumbs In South Carolina

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Barron Morgan, 79, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the chapel of the Moody Funeral Home in Sylva. She died in a Greenville, S. C. hospital after a brief illness. Mrs. Morgan was a native of Jackson County, but often visited here with her daughter, Mrs. Roan Bradley.

The Rev. Ernest Fitzgerald officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. C. Sorrells, and burial was in the Old Savannah Cemetery. Pallbearers were Amos Cabe, C. R. Wilson, Robert Buchanan, Frank Barron, Monroe Buchanan, and Fred Cabe.

Surviving, in addition to Mrs. Bradley are a daughter, Mrs. J. P. Gillen, of Warwick, Va.; a son, J. D. Morgan, of Charlotte; two brothers, Leon Barron, of Sylva, and Fred Barron, of Sylva, Route 2; two sisters, Mrs. Baston Buchanan of Sylva, and Mrs. Ernest Cabe, of Franklin; 13 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 17 July 1958