

Mr. Morgan

Ralph Edward Morgan Sr., 43, of Franklin, died unexpectedly Tuesday at Angel Community Hospital. He was a native of Macon County, the son of Delia Mae Cloer Morgan Brendle, of Franklin, and the late Joseph Henry Morgan, and was married to Bertha Wiggins Morgan, who survives. He was a self-employed tire dealer in Franklin for a number of years and was a member of Watauga Baptist Church.

He is also survived by a son, Ralph Edward Morgan Jr., of the home; a daughter, Sharon Morgan Ford, of Franklin; and two sisters, Phyllis Sue Hedden and Mildred Kinsland, both of Franklin.

Services were held Thursday, July 15, in Bryant Funeral Chapel, and burial was in Woodlawn Memorial Park. Officiating ministers were the Revs. Howard Southard, Mack McGinnes and C. Ray Lewis and pallbearers were Lloyd Hooper, Thad Woods, Hubert Bateman, C.D. Jenkins, Larry Stewart, Luther Ford, Tilley Baker, and Tim Stewart.

Memorial gifts may be made to Emanuel Baptist Church, c/o Rev. Howard Southard, Franklin, N.C.

The Franklin Press, 16 July 1982