

Tom Moseley, 66, of Lakemont, died Sunday, May 28, 2006, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Atlanta.

He was born Dec. 4, 1939, in Rabun County to Bill and Tonibel Pitts Moseley. He retired as a school bus driver and a house painter. He also worked in the textile industry. He was a member of Joy Baptist Church, where he served as a deacon for more than 30 years.

He was preceded in death by a son, William Bradley Moseley.

Survivors include: his wife, Janie McCrackin Moseley of Lakemont; a son and daughter-in-law, Kevin and Angela Moseley; a daughter and son-in-law, Tonya and Randy McKay; five grandchildren, Dana and Dalton McKay and Blake, Cody and Tori Moseley, all of Lakemont; and several cousins.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Joy Baptist Church with the Revs. Tony Goss and Cleve Allen officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, June, 1, 2006