

Harry Moses, 82, of Franklin, passed away on Thursday, Nov. 23, 2006.

A native of Macon County, he was the son of the late Lorenz T. Moses and Edna Bowman Moses. He was also preceded in death by a brother, Edgar Moses.

He was a U.S. Navy veteran of WWII, serving on the USS Franklin CV13 in the Pacific theater. Harry was a graduate of Western Carolina University; a teacher and principal in the Macon County school system and in Roanoke Rapids; a real estate broker for over 50 years; a member of Higdonville Baptist Church and a member of the VFW Post 7339.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Dixie Childers Moses; a daughter, Carolyn Sanders and husband Dennis of Franklin; three sisters, Melba Huggins, Hazel Stamey and husband Jay Lloyd and Virginia Corbin and husband Wilford, all of Franklin; a brother, Joe Moses of Franklin; two granddaughters, Erica Sanders and Cheryl Sanders Vernon and husband Trevor; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Nov. 26, at 2 p.m., in the Chapel of Macon Funeral Home. Revs. Mack Hutson and Tommy Fouts officiated.

Burial was in the Sugarfork Baptist Cemetery with military rites conducted by the VFW Post 7339 and the American Legion Post 108. Pallbearers were Dennis Stamey, Steve Higdon, Trevor Vernon, Gary Garren, Morlan Bowman, Eric Corbin, Carroll Corbin and Jake Stamey.

The family received friends Saturday, Nov. 25, from 6 to 8 p.m., at Macon Funeral Home.

Memorial donations may be made to the Higdonville Baptist Church Building Fund.
