

Lewis J. Moses

Lewis J. Moses, 69, of the Holly Springs Community, died Monday, August 21, at his home after a short illness.

He was a lifelong resident of Macon County, a retired lumberman, a member of Holly Springs Baptist Church, chairman of the building and improvement committee and active in all community affairs. He was the husband of Mrs. Lovicia Justice Moses who survives.

Other survivors include a son, Earl Moses of the home; two brothers, Lorenz of Route 5, Franklin, and Anil Moses of Dallas, Texas; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Services were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday in Holly Springs Baptist Church.

The Revs. Judson Hall and Cecil Frady officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were Harry, George and Andrew Moses, Arthur Tate, Larry Ammons, Kenneth Young and Weaver Shope.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.