

Angie Mullaney

Angie Mullaney of Lakeland, Fla., passed away on Monday, Jan. 21, 2008, at the age of 72.

Born in Evansville, Ind., she also lived in Nashville, Tenn., and Lakeland, Fla.

Angie was a loving mother, grandmother and friend. She dearly loved all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchild, and loved spending time with family and friends over a good meal. Many lives were blessed and hearts were touched by Angie's loving and caring nature.

She is survived by two sons, Michael Steven Kirtley and wife Kim of Otto, and James Edward Kirtley Jr. and wife Liz of Lakeland, Fla.; four grandchildren, Stephaine, Michael, T.J. and Colton; and a great-grandson, Ryan.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James; and brothers, Terry and Butchie.

A celebration of her life is being planned by her family and a memorial service will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to St. Francis of Assisi Church in Franklin.

The Franklin Press, 30 January 2008