

Robert Earl Nash, 75, of Franklin, passed away Wednesday, Dec. 27, 2006.

A native of Peytona, W.Va., he was the son of the late Charles Nash and Hazel Barker Nash Kirk.

Robert was a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean War. He retired from Zipperer Farms in 1998, where he worked as a farm mechanic for 23 years. He was a member of Westside Church of Christ and he loved his farm.

Surviving are his wife of 56 years, Geraldine "Gerri" Hensley Nash; three children, Donna Nash-Rogers of Franklin, Duane Nash of Florida and Diana Dooley of Franklin; two sisters, Shirley Snodgrass and Zella Jarrett, both of West, Va.; seven grandchildren, Christi Jones, Jessica Betts, Eric Seymour, Jill Griffith, Amy Seymour, Chad Seymour and Daryan Nash; four great-grandchildren, Kendrick Manning, Kailey Griffith, Tyler Griffith and Maddox Jones; and a number of nieces and nephews.

No services will be held.

Memorial donations may be made to West Care Hospice, 132 Sylva Plaza, Sylva, NC 28779.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Online condolences are available by visiting HYPERLINK <http://www.maconfuneralhome.com> www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 3 January 2007