

DEATH CLAIMS

S. P. NEELY, 74

Widely Known Resident Succumbs to Heart Attack Sunday

Samuel Pritchard Neely, 74, died at 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning at his home, Carrington Hall, (formerly known as the Morrison school), of a heart attack.

Mr. Neely came to Franklin eight years ago and formerly operated Trimont Inn. He and Mrs. Neely leased the Morrison school property from Joseph Ashear several months ago and were operating it as a tourist home, and planned to operate a store and filling station in connection.

Mr. Neely was born in Tennessee in 1864 and was a member of the Baptist church. He was at one time connected with the sales department of the Buick Motor company in Atlanta, and was well known in Atlanta and Barnesville, Ga.

Surviving are his widow, one son, J. C. Neely, of Atlanta; a granddaughter and two sisters, Mrs. E. D. Newton, of Athens, Ga., and Mrs. Shepherd, of Nashville, Tenn.

Funeral services were conducted in the chapel at the Bryant Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment was in the Franklin cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Henry W. Cabe, R. S. Jonts, Emory Hunnicutt, Joseph Ashear, J. E. Perry and W. T. Moore.