

William F. Nichols

William Floyd Nichols, 71 year old life long Macon County resident, died in the Angel Community Hospital Saturday following a long illness. He was a retired farmer and timberman.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Maiden's Chapel United Methodist Church with Rev. Gene Southard and Rev. William Haselden having part in the service. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Beulah Dills Nichols, of Franklin, two daughters, Mrs. Annals McConkle, of California, and Mrs. Lela Mae Edward Stewart, of Pickens, South Carolina; two sons, Marshall Nichols, of Franklin, and Elmer Nichols, of Gastonia; two sisters, Mrs. Roxie Sweatman, of Franklin, and Mrs. Hallie Ledford, of Franklin; and one brother, Fred Nichols, of Franklin.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.