

James A. Norton Taken By Death

James A. Norton, 50, of the Otto section, died at the home of his brother, John Norton, Tuesday morning following four years of declining health. He was confined to his bed two months before his death. He was a native of Macon county. Mr. Norton was a farmer and was never married.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Wednesday at Asbury Methodist church, the Rev. J. C. Swain, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were James McDowell, Ralph Norton, Raleigh Norris, Marvin Howard, Jess Norton and Harley Thomas.

In addition to the brother with whom he made his home, he is survived by one brother, Lester Norton of Otto; and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Justice, also of Otto.

The Franklin Press, 2 September 1943