

Rites For Norton,
Native Of Jackson,
Held On Tuesday

Funeral services for Lewis Ransom Norton, 56, of the Norton community in Jackson county, who died Sunday night at his home, were held at the Norton Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Rev. Robert E. Early officiated and burial was in the Norton community cemetery where Masonic rites were held.

Mr. Norton was born October 4, 1894, the son of Griffin and Fannie Norton. He was assistant post master of the Norton post office for a number of years.

Surviving are, the widow, Mrs. Lula Evitt Norton; the mother, Mrs. Fannie Norton; two sons, Edwin, of Georgia, and Hilton, of Nebraska; and a brother, Leonard Norton.

The Franklin Press, 4 January 1951