

Joan Svendsen O'Day

Joan Svendsen O'Day, 66, died Aug. 11, 2004. She was born on May 24, 1938, in Racine, Wis., to George and Bernice Svendsen. She was preceded in death by her father, George Svendsen, and sister Rosemary Rosenke. She is survived by her mother, Bernice, and brother George, both of Racine; and by her son, Tom; grandchildren Kayleigh, Cameron, Connor and her great-grandson, Dominic, all of central Florida.

At Mrs. O'Day's request, no services will be held. Donations of any kind can be made in her honor to any of the following organizations which played an important role in maintaining her happiness, quality of life and for allowing her to retain her independence in her home:

The S.A.I.L. Program at Pathways for the Future, Center For Independent Living (828) 631-1167.

Home Delivered Meals Program at the Macon County Dept. on Aging (828) 349-2058.

Macon Program for Progress (housing rehabilitation/home repair) (828) 524-4471.

The Franklin Press, 31 August 2004