

MRS. ANSEL OGDEN PASSES IN LOS ANGELES

Elias D. White of La Verne, Calif., a former resident of Highlands, has sent the following notice which will be of interest to many in Highlands and Macon county.

Mrs. Ansel R. ("Lulu") Ogden passed away in Los Angeles on the 4th day of February, 1943.

Mrs. Ogden was the eldest of 5 children of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Kelsey, so inseparably connected with the early history of Highlands. Of the 3 children who made their homes in the far West only one, a daughter, now survives. S. T. Kelsey, Jr., died in Los Angeles 3 years ago at the age of 70. Two sons, Harlan P. Kelsey and Dr. Harry E. Kelsey.

S. T. Kelsey and C. C. Hutchinson are remembered and honored founders of the town of Highlands. Mr. Kelsey alone, however, stayed with us until the scene of his sacrificial labors was an assured success.

The sturdy pioneers of our country who pushed their way north and south and west built a great nation. No wilderness was too difficult, no prairie too boundless, no forest too dense and interminable for them to penetrate and subdue. We, likewise, cherish the memory of Mr. Kelsey and Mr. Hutchinson who lived and dwelt among us. They were made of the same stuff.
