

kimo children on the pediatric ward of the Alaska Native Hospital in Anchorage, Alaska.

She and her husband, Keith, were active members of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church in Franklin.

She is survived by her husband, Keith Osborne; two daughters, Lorna Schwarz and Donna Wright; five sons, Philip Ham and Arnold, Wayne, Martin and Raymond Osborne; one sister, Viola Jenkins; one brother, Benjamin F. Turner; six grandchildren; one great grandchild; numerous step grandchildren and step great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service, to be announced at a later date, will be held at Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Osborne

Katherine B. Osborne died on March 17, in Alamogordo, N.M. Born in Kansas, the daughter of the late James and Clara Turner, she grew up in Lake Worth, Fla.. She resided in Franklin from 1985 until last year.

A retired LPN, she spent many years working with Es-