

Mrs. Parrish 71, Dies On Rose Creek

Funeral services for Mrs. Lurn Hall Parrish, 71, were held at the Oak Grove Baptist church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. G. E. Scruggs, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Norman E. Holden. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Parrish, a life-long resident of Macon county, died at her home in the Rose Creek community Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, following an illness of six months.

A daughter of the late Sam Hall and Mary Myers Hall, Mrs. Parrish was born on September 29, 1874. She was married to George Parrish of the Rose Creek section in 1912. Mr. Parrish died several years ago. She was a member of the Oak Grove Baptist church.

The pallbearers were Hargrove

Parrish, Rudolph Parrish, Ellis McCoy, Willard McCoy, Rozelle McCoy and Dwight Parrish.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Don Raby, Mrs. Ernest Huggins and Mrs. Forest Huggins, all of Franklin, Route 3; one son, R. L. Parrish, of the home; one sister, Mrs. Arthur C. Pannell, of Franklin; and one brother, Lenna Hall, Franklin, Route 3.

Bryant funeral directors were in charge of the arrangements.