

Clarence Woodrow Passmore

Clarence Woodrow Passmore, 54, of Rock Hill, S.C, formerly of Franklin, passed away Wednesday, March 15, 2005, at his residence.

A native of Franklin, he was the son of the late Woodrow Bryson Passmore and Pearl Annalee Arnold Passmore.

He was a truck driver for 31 years and a truck driver for T.H. Snipes & Sons for 23 years.

He is survived by a son, Geoffry Passmore of the home; two daughters, Teresa Foreman of Jacksonville, Fla., and Stacy Rene Passmore of Fort Mill, S.C.; a brother, Richard Passmore of Brattonsville, S.C.; four sisters, Susie McGuire of Rock Hill, Juanita Cooper of Edgemoor, S.C., Judy McKenzie of Salem, S.C., and Zelma May Christian of New Bern; and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday, March 18, at 2 p.m., at Lesslie Church of God. Rev. Michael Leonhardt and Rev. Lafon Hardy will officiate.

The family received friends on Thursday, March 17, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., at Greene Funeral Home Downtown Chapel.

Memorials may be made to the American Heart Association, 310-B Bennett Center Dr., Greer, SC 29650.

Greene Funeral Home Downtown Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 18 March 2005