

Lawrence T. Peavy

Lawrence Thomas Peavy, 44, died unexpectedly at his home in Franklin Thursday.

A native of South Carolina, he had operated a shoe store in Franklin for the past six years.

He was a member of the Franklin Salvation Army Corps.

Funeral services were held at the local Salvation Army Corps Chapel with Captain Margie Robinson conducting the service, last Sunday, March 9. Burial was in the Green Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Peavy is survived by one step-daughter, Mrs. David Faulkner, of Waynesville; his father W. H. Peavy, two brothers, Jack Peavy, of Enoree, S. C., and Frank Peavy, of Lafayette, Ind.; three sisters, Mrs. Nellie McGaha, of Spartanburg, S. C., Mrs. Betty Campbell, of Laurens, S. C., and Mrs. Mary Sugors, of Route 3, Clinton, S. C.

Pallbearers were Wymer Collins, Ellis Collins, Leonard Maney, Jim Peck, Herman Franks, and Byrd Collins.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 13 March 1969